RE: Non-Practicing Exemption, Bar No. 24033018

Dear MS. SHARON ROSENBERG:

We have received and approved your request for a non-practicing exemption from MCLE requirements based on the fact that you do not practice law in Texas and will not do so until further notice to the State Bar of Texas.

While eligible for the non-practicing exemption, you continue to pay bar dues, retain your bar card, maintain bar privileges and obligations, receive bar publications, but are exempt from the minimum 15-hour CLE and ineligible to practice law within the State of Texas.

Your MCLE Annual Verification Report will be mailed to you two months prior to your birth month. If you are still eligible for the non-practicing exemption, nothing further is required. The exemption will remain on your record until you decide to change it.

Please note that a non-practicing exemption is not the same as an Inactive membership status. Should you desire to be placed on an Inactive membership status and thereby have your bar dues reduced, please contact the Membership Department at (800) 204-2222 or locally at 463-1463, ext. 1383.

If your circumstances change and you wish to begin practicing law in Texas, please report the change immediately so that the exemption can be removed from your record. Resuming a regular MCLE status will immediately subject you to the MCLE requirements for the compliance year in which the status change occurs. You may report a change in MCLE status by completing and filing a State Bar of Texas Credit Input Form, (mailed each year with the Annual Verification Report) or by registering the change at the MCLE reporting site, which can be accessed through the "My Bar Page" feature at www.texasbar.com.

Your MCLE compliance year will always begin on the first day of your birth month and end on the last day of the month immediately preceeding your birth month in the following calendar year. If you return to a regular MCLE status before the end of your MCLE compliance year, you will be subject to fulfilling the 15-hour requirement by the end of that period.

If we can be of any further assistance, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Vicki L. Roberts

MCLE Compliance Supervisor
